Re: Doe v. New York University, et al., No. 19 Civ. 744 (ALC)

Dear Judge Carter:

We represent Defendants in this action. We write to request leave to file a reply brief of no more than 15 pages in support of Defendants' Motion to Dismiss the Amended Complaint (Dkt. No. 36). The Court previously granted leave to both parties to file memoranda of law of no more than 35 pages, in approving the parties' Joint Status Report (Dkt. No. 33). The Joint Status Report, however, did not address the length of the reply brief.

Defendants request the additional five pages (beyond the ten-page limit otherwise required by the Court's Individual Practices) in order to adequately respond to Plaintiff's 33-page opposition memorandum. (Dkt. No. 40). Plaintiff's opposition expands upon Plaintiff's 55-page Amended Complaint and addresses significant questions of law under Title IX as well as several state law claims against all ten defendants. Defendants believe that a 15-page reply is necessary to allow Defendants to appropriately respond to Plaintiffs' numerous arguments.

We contacted counsel for Plaintiff to seek their consent to this request for additional pages, but they declined to consent. We appreciate the Court's attention to this matter.

Respectfully submitted,

/s/ Ira M. Feinberg /
